SECTION 1 POLICY STATEMENT

1.1. The Khalifa University of Science and Technology libraries use internationally recognized cataloging standards and practices to properly organize, describe and classify items within the library collections in order to make information retrieval efficient and effective.

SECTION 2 SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

2.1. This policy is applicable to the Cataloging Librarian and Cataloging Officer as they process and classify library resources.

2.2. The policy applies to works owned by the library in all formats: monographs, serials, maps, electronic resources, eBooks, multimedia, etc.

SECTION 3 PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy document is to:

3.1. Guide the cataloging staff and to inform the public about the principles upon which decisions are made.

3.2. Organize library resources for effective retrieval and use in support of the university's teaching and research activities.

SECTION 4 DEFINITIONS

The following definition(s) apply to this policy document:

4.1. The Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules, Second Edition: An internationally recognized standard used in the construction of catalogs and other lists in libraries.

4.2. Call Number: The alphanumeric string assigned to an item to indicate its location on the shelf.

4.3. Cataloging Record: A record that includes all needed bibliographic information of a library item including subject headings, physical description, and classification or call number.

4.4. Copy cataloging: Adaptation of a pre-existing bibliographic record, usually found in a recognized bibliographic database, to fit the characteristics of the item in hand, with modifications to correct obvious errors and minor adjustments to reflect locally accepted cataloging practice.

4.5. Library of Congress Classification System (LCC): The most widely used library classification system in the world. Developed by the Library of Congress.

The online version of this policy document is definitive.

4.6. MARC (Machine-readable Cataloging Record): Internationally recognized standard for the creation of machine-readable cataloging records. MARC21 is the most recent revision of the standard.

4.7. Original cataloging: Preparation of a bibliographic record from scratch without the aid of a pre-existing catalog record for the same edition. It is more time-consuming for the cataloger than copy cataloging.

4.8. OCLC: A non-profit cooperative library organization that maintains the largest online public access catalog in the world. It provides record-sharing of catalog records for its members.

4.9. RDA (Resource Description and Access): The standard for descriptive cataloging initially released in 2010. It is the successor to the Anglo-American Cataloging Rules, Second Edition.

SECTION 5 PROVISIONS AND GUIDELINES

5.1. Library materials are classified according to the Library of Congress Classification (LCC) system.

5.2. High levels of quality and cataloging instructions for bibliographic records are created natively in the catalogue.

5.3. All cataloging records should have full standard physical descriptions, subject heading(s), and authority records.

5.4. The library cataloger works to make the library resources readily accessible to all its patrons by performing the following activities:

- Original and copy cataloging
- The maintenance of electronic records of all KU libraries' collections.
- The physical preparation of items for use by the public.

5.5. The cataloger should strike a balance between following national and international standards for cataloging records versus adapting and enhancing those records to meet the needs to library users and for inclusion in the library's catalog.

5.6. Without the permission of the Cataloging Librarian, items shall not be loaned before cataloging is complete.

SECTION 6 RESPONSIBILITIES

6.1. The SVP Academic and Student Services is responsible for the implementation of this policy document and its provisions.

6.2. The library management has monitoring authority for this policy document.
