SECTION 1 POLICY STATEMENT

1.1. The library maintains clear guidelines for use of electronic resources. Electronic resources are licensed, not owned, by KU libraries for use by students, faculty, and staff for their study and research purposes. The owners of each electronic resource define what is considered to be appropriate use, and monitor use to detect potential abuse of their intellectual property.

SECTION 2 SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

2.1. This policy document is applicable to all students, faculty and staff of KU, as well as other members of the community who are authorized users (see LIB 8500 Access to University Libraries and Student Success Centers).

SECTION 3 PURPOSE

3.1. This document provides provisions and guidelines for the proper use of electronic resources made available by the university library to KU students, staff, faculty, and other authorized users.

SECTION 4 DEFINITIONS

The following definition(s) apply to this policy document:

4.1. Electronic Resources: Online information resources, including bibliographic databases, electronic books, electronic journals, search engines for full text collections, digital collections of data and data sets.

SECTION 5 PROVISIONS AND GUIDELINES

5.1. Electronic resources available through Khalifa University of Science and Technology (KU) are licensed by the university for educational or research purposes only. The commercial use of these resources by faculty, staff, students and on-site users is not allowed. Additional restrictions for certain databases may apply.

5.1.1. The terms and conditions of agreements with vendors and publishers of electronic resources regulate the use of these resources. These conditions include, but are not limited to, restrictions on copying, republishing, altering, redistributing and reselling the information contained therein.

5.2. Users agree that they will not:

The online version of this policy document is definitive.

5.2.1. Violate any copyright, trademark, patent or other intellectual property right associated with the electronic resource;

5.2.2. Use the electronic resource for any purpose other than educational or research purposes;

5.2.3. Use the electronic resource for commercial purposes;

5.2.4. Excessively or systematically download or copy the electronic resource;

5.2.5. Use the electronic resource in course packs or e-reserves without the appropriate permissions;

5.2.6. Copy or install the electronic resource to his or her personal computer or other electronic medium;

5.2.7. Distribute any contents of an electronic resource to others, either in electronic or hard-copy form;

5.2.8. Use the electronic resource in an illegal or otherwise improper manner; or

5.2.9. Provide access to the electronic resources to unauthorized users.

5.3. Persons using a computer on the KU network are considered authorized users for many, but not all, electronic resources.

5.4. Off-campus/remote use is available for many, but not all, electronic resources for faculty, staff, and currently enrolled students at KU. Off-campus access is not available for individuals who are not currently affiliated with KU.

5.5. An authorized user may copy reasonable amounts of the electronic resources for personal or private study purposes, subject to UAE copyright law.

5.6. KU will not be held liable for any unauthorized use of electronic resources.

5.7. Detailed disciplinary guidelines and possible sanctions for violations are published in the Human Resources Policy Manual (for employees) and the Student Handbook (for students).

SECTION 6 RESPONSIBILITIES

6.1. The SVP Academic and Student Services is responsible for the implementation of this policy document and its provisions.

6.2. The library management has monitoring authority for this policy document.
