REVIEWED

a) KU is to share any details that would allow CEC-ECAE to provide the above-mentioned operational and administrative support services. Additionally, as indicated in earlier communications, KU's responsibilities would include the following points, aside from any additional logistics or aspects that the agreement would indicate:
   - Quality assurance of the training content
   - Client relationship management (Includes handling all aspects related to preparing requests for proposals, etc....)
   - Choice and allocation of instructors to deliver the training courses
   - Coordination and booking of the training venue
   - Provision of any training resources and/or equipment
   - Provision of catering services, if any.

b) KU is to provide detailed information, aside from any future extra information that KU and CEC-ECAE deem as vital to running the provided services on the following:
   - Faculty Details (This would include all the concerned faculty members who need to be registered and licensed through ACTVET and then added to CEC-ECAE's Masary Learning Management System).
   - Learners' Information (List with learners' details to be able to add them to Masary Manager as soon as they are scheduled for a training)
   - Any details that define CEC-ECAE's involvement, if any, with KU's training materials.
   - Any quality assurance procedures that are to be followed for any services that CEC-ECAE has agreed to provide.
   - Reporting requirements in terms of key components that are to be included in any CEC-ECAE-generated reports such as: Programme Objectives, Deliverable, KPIs, Attendance, Satisfaction Survey Analysis.
   - Any other training related requirements that define both CEC-ECAE's and KU's roles and responsibilities.

10. Agreement Price, Payment Terms, and Invoices

a) Second Party shall pay to the First Party to settle all the First Party entitlements under this Agreement. The pricing is determined based on the required services mentioned below:

d) The obligations of confidentiality will not apply to Confidential Information, disclosed by one Party ("Disclosing Party") to the other Party ("Receiving Party"), where the Receiving Party can clearly demonstrate that the information:
   a. was in the public domain prior to its disclosure or enters into the public domain after disclosure otherwise than by default of the Receiving Party;
   b. becomes known to the Receiving Party by action of a third party not in breach of any obligation of confidentiality to the Disclosing Party;
   c. was in the Receiving Party's possession before receipt from the Disclosing Party and was not acquired directly or indirectly from the Disclosing Party;
   d. was independently developed by or for the Receiving Party at any time, independently of the Confidential Information disclosed to it by the Disclosing Party;
   e. is required to be disclosed by law, government regulation or court order. In such cases, the Receiving Party shall wherever practicable give reasonable advance notice of the intended disclosure to the other Party and shall limit the disclosure to the extent legally required.

e) The provisions of this article shall survive any termination of this agreement for a period of 5 years from termination.

12. Sub-Contractors

The First Party may sub-agreement portions of its work providing a written consent to the Second Party. Prior to entering into a sub-agreement with a Third Party, for whom the approval is required under this article, the First Party:

a) agrees to provide a complete list of names and addresses of all the sub-contractors consultants and any other contractors of services for the performance of the Agreement.
b) shall first ensure such sub-contractors or other third parties sign legally-binding agreements requiring them to abide by conditions of confidentiality no less onerous than those set out in this agreement.
c) shall be fully responsible for all work and services performed and all material and equipment supplied by sub-contractors and for the acts and omissions of sub-contractors and persons either employed directly or indirectly.

13. Termination of Agreement

a) Termination for Cause

b) Termination for Convenience
Both parties shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement, at any time for convenience, by giving a one (1) month' notice of such termination to the other Party.

c) Payment in Event of Termination
If the Second Party terminates the agreement pursuant to clauses (a) or (b) above, the Second Party shall be responsible to pay to the First Party:
(i) any payment which was due to the First Party prior to the date of termination but which was not paid prior to termination; and
(ii) a proportion of the next payment (if any) falling due after the date of termination reflecting the First Party's actual expenditure on the Services prior to the date of termination and any non-cancellable commitments entered into by the First Party for the performance of the Services.

14. Conflict of interests

Each Party shall exercise reasonable care and diligence to prevent any actions or conditions which could result in a conflict of interests with the other Party. Both Parties agree to notify each party if, at any time during the continuance of this Agreement, it becomes reasonably aware of the likelihood that a conflict of interest has developed. In the event of a conflict or potential conflict, the Parties agree to amend the Services to avoid any conflict or, where this is not possible or viable, to terminate the Services forthwith on written notice and in accordance with article 13.

15. Disputes

In cases of disputes that cannot be resolved directly by either Parties, this Agreement and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of United Arab Emirates of Abu Dhabi and the parties irrevocably agree that the courts of Abu Dhabi shall have exclusive jurisdiction to accept any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

16. Notices

Any notices to be given under the terms of this Agreement shall be served by sending the same by post or by email or by delivering the same to the Administration Office of the Party on whom such notice is to be served.

17. Variations

a) Amendments to any term, condition, or provisions of this Agreement can only be effected by executing a Variation Order duly signed by Parties hereto.

b) Both Parties shall strictly comply with all terms and conditions of this Agreement and shall not carry any amendments to this Agreement until formally authorized by executing a Variation Order duly approved by both Parties thereto.

18. Force Majeure

a) Failure or omission on the part of either Party to observe any of the terms and conditions hereinbefore stipulated shall not give rise to any claim or be deemed a breach of this Agreement if such failure or omission arises from any cause reasonably beyond the control of either party including without limitation fire, war, natural disasters, or any delays or failures by the Second Party to give adequate instructions or approvals.

b) Party claiming force majeure shall notify the other Party of such event within fifteen (15) days by email stating the estimated consequences. Onus to prove the occurrence of such events lies on the party claiming its invocation. If the force majeure lasts more than three (3) months either may come to an agreement to terminate the Agreement without affecting its rights adversely under this Agreement.

c) Any extension in the delivery period due to clauses of force majeure shall be by mutual agreement between Parties.

d) The other party may terminate this agreement, should it be determined that either party becomes subject to force majeure or extreme unexpected circumstances making delivery impossible for a period longer than six months then.

19. Assignment

First Party may in any manner or degree assign or transfer, directly or indirectly, the Agreement or any part thereof or any share or interest therein, as long as written consent was provided and approved by the Second Party.

20. Indemnities

a) First Party shall notify Second Party of any accident occurrence likely to give rise to a claim under KU insurances as soon as possible in any event within two (2) working days of such occurrence. First Party shall also submit all the claim documents to the Second Party as soon as possible and in any event within fifteen (15) days of such occurrence. Whenever applicable, actual settlement of a claim shall be effected by the Insurers directly to KU account. Once the claim amount is settled by the Insurers, Second party shall reimburse the First Party the claim amount due to First Party as the case may be.

b) In no event shall either Party have any liability to the other Party or its affiliates or sub-contractors for any special, indirect, exemplary, punitive or consequential loss or damage including damages or claims in the nature of lost revenue, income, profits or investment opportunities.

c) First Party shall not be liable for any loss, destruction of or damage to items or property provided by the Second Party to First Party on whatever terms in connection with the Services, except if caused by the negligence of First Party.

d) The First Party's aggregate liability to the Second Party for any loss or damage suffered by the Second Party as a result of the First Party's breach of agreement, negligence, or otherwise, howsoever arising shall be limited to the agreement price to the Second Party under this Agreement. This clause shall not limit or exclude any liability that as a matter of the applicable laws cannot be limited or excluded such as liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence.

e) Without limitation to its obligations and responsibilities under this Agreement, the First Party during the whole period of the Agreement from commencement until the expiry date shall at its own expense either insure or cause to be insured for liability for bodily injury by accident or disease including death resulting therefrom sustained by any agent, servant or employee of First Party or sub-contractors arising out of and in the course of employment.

21. Publicity

a) Neither Party shall use the name, crest, logo, trademark or registered image of the other Party nor the name of any employee, member of staff or student of the other Party or an Affiliate for any purpose without the express written permission of the other Party.

b) Subject to article 11 above, the Second Party hereby agrees that First Party can in discussions with prospective clients and in its promotional materials make reference to having undertaken work for the Second Party including a brief description of that work. The Second Party may withdraw permission for First Party to use its name in this manner at any time by giving written notice.

22. Applicable Laws

a) This Agreement is governed by the laws applicable in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi and the United Arab Emirates.

b) The headings in this Agreement are meant for easy reference only and shall not form part hereof nor shall they have any effect on its interpretation.

c) The First Party has to obtain all the licenses and permits required under the laws applicable to this Agreement if needed.

d) Any contradiction between the provisions hereof and any other documents, provisions hereof shall prevail. In case of any contradiction between the provisions hereof the subsequent provision shall supersede the previous one.

e) Any dispute, case or controversy arising from or in connection with this Agreement or any breach hereof shall be referred to the parties for amicable settlement. If the amicable settlement is not possible, the dispute shall be referred to the court of jurisdiction for settlement.

a) Words or expressions used in this clause which are defined in the VAT Law have the same meaning in this clause.

b) To the extent that VAT is payable by the supplier in respect of any supply made by that party (Supplier) to another party (Recipient) under or in connection with this agreement, the consideration to be provided under this agreement for that supply is increased by an amount equal to the VAT exclusive consideration (or its VAT exclusive market value if applicable) multiplied by the rate of VAT applicable to that supply.

c) Provided that the Supplier has issued a valid Tax Invoice to the Recipient in respect of the supply, the Recipient must pay the additional amount payable under clause (b) to the Supplier at the same time as the VAT exclusive consideration is otherwise required to be provided. If the Supplier has not issued a valid Tax Invoice prior to the time the VAT exclusive consideration is payable, the Recipient must pay the additional amount under clause (b) to the Supplier upon receipt of a valid Tax Invoice.

d) To the extent any of the consideration for a supply made under or in connection with this agreement is non-monetary, the parties will treat the amount of non-monetary consideration as exclusive of VAT. The VAT amount payable for the supply is to be paid upon receipt of a valid Tax Invoice or at such other time agreed between the parties.

e) Whenever an adjustment occurs in relation to any Taxable Supply made under or in connection with this agreement, the Supplier must determine the net VAT in relation to the supply (taking into account any adjustment) and if the net VAT differs from the amount previously paid under clause (b) or otherwise included in any consideration expressed to be inclusive of VAT, the amount of the difference must be paid by, refunded to or credited to the Recipient, as applicable and the Supplier shall issue a Tax Credit Note or Tax Invoice to the Recipient.

f) If one of the parties to this agreement is entitled to be reimbursed or indemnified for a loss, cost, expense or outgoing incurred in connection with this agreement, then the amount of the reimbursement or indemnity payment must first be reduced by an amount equal of any Input Tax to which the party being reimbursed or indemnified is entitled in relation to that loss, cost, expense or outgoing and then, if the amount of the payment is consideration or part consideration for a Taxable Supply, it must be increased on account of VAT in accordance with clause (b).

IN WITNESS whereof the Parties hereto have set their respective signatures and seals on the date first written above.

1. Introduction

In the spirit of promoting business cooperation and partnership, the Continuing Education Centre (CEC) at Emirates College for Advanced Education (ECAE) would like to commence by thanking Khalifa University (KU) for the opportunity to submit this proposal in response to recent email communications regarding provision of project management and administrative support services.

2. About Us

The CEC was established in 2014 to design and deliver training programmes to respond to the professional development needs of the job market and the Emirates, and to utilise shared resources with its parent body, ECAE, in order to ensure cost effectiveness and leverage the use of government funding. The CEC has different licenses and accreditations by several national and international bodies, most notably a Licensed Training Provider (LTP) by ACTVET (License No. 0635/2014); a Registered Training Provider (RTP) by the NQA (License No. AD011500094), as well as an international accreditation to provide British qualifications in partnership with NCFE/CACHE (Centre No. 03570000). See Appendices

3. Training Services Offered by CEC-ECAE

Service	Description
1. Project Management and Administrative Support Services	CEC-ECAE is distinguished by a highly capable and qualified caliber which includes a Project Management Team that has years of experience in planning, implementing and managing training programs and a solid knowledge of the UAE and the region's culture. Over the past 4 years, the CEC-ECAE Project Management team has been able to plan for, implement and oversee the progress of different training programmes delivered to its key stakeholders. The points below highlight the team's key responsibilities and define those suggested for CEC's collaboration with KU: • Responsible for the different aspects of the high level planning and operation of the projects. • Represents the CEC-ECAE in all formal communication with KU and leads the Project Support team in order to ensure smooth implementation and fulfil project deliverables and service-level agreements (SLAs). • Responsible for planning and overseeing the day-to-day implementation of all the project components to guarantee effectiveness and efficiency. • Communicate, coordinate and follow-up with different team members, including the Administrative Assistants, the Trainers, and the Quality Assurance Team to make sure all the project aspects are implemented and delivered in a timely manner. • Conduct necessary field visits, meetings and reports as directed by the Project Management Team to ensure that the deliverables meet the objectives of the project.

- Communicate updates and work closely with the Project Management Team to ensure continuous collaboration and exchange of feedback and guarantee that the project is proceeding as planned. This will allow CEC-ECAE to update KU with the projects' status, any challenges or adjustments that need to be made, and any significant plans or upcoming events.
- Maintain and regularly prepare day-to-day project files and necessary documentation and make sure all are ready and completed in a timely fashion.
- Liaise with the appropriate personnel to ensure action items are completed throughout the stages of the project.
- Prepare learners' certificates after the completion of the project.

2. IT Services

Masary E-Portfolio System

- CEC-ECAE initiated the design and implementation of an e-Portfolio system called Masary, which is a platform to fulfil the requirements of the national and international qualifications and training programs that the CEC-ECAE offers.
- Masary enables its users to upload, assemble and manage electronic evidence through an online portal. Electronic evidence includes word processed documents, pdfs, images, multimedia entries and links .
- The purpose of Masary is to enable communication between learners, assessors, internal verifiers and when necessary system administrators as it facilitates remote interactions for the purpose of learning and development .
- Masary also enables its users to generate assessment plans and reports, record learning progress, generate activity reports, and provide on-going records of achievements.

Why Masary?

- Meets the NQA & ACTVET standards and requirements when it comes to internal and external verification.
- Keeps record of all learners' profiles and portfolios.
- Learners receives their feedback within a private and secure environment
- Platform is built on a vocational education context which clarifies learner, assessor, internal & external verifier roles and responsibilities.
- Allows smooth transfer of all documentations for internal and external verification.
- Allows assessors to monitor the progress of their learners throughout the learning journey.
- Allows learners to choose the best way to proof their learning.
- Ensures the effectiveness of the verification process as it allows sampling (i.e. Enables the internal verifier to sample learners portfolios).
- All activities of the e-portfolio users will be logged and time stamped for audit and tracking purposes.
- Enables group and individual ways of communication.
