AGREEMENT FOR COLLABORATIVE RESEARCH PROGRAM

At

AEROSPACE RESEARCH AND INNOVATION CENTER (ARIC)

Between

AEROSPACE HOLDING COMPANY (AHC)

and

KHALIFA UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (KHALIFA UNIVERSITY)

This agreement (the "Agreement") is made this 29th day of September 2019 (the Signature Date)

BETWEEN:

(1) Aerospace Holding Company LLC (AHC), a limited liability company established under the laws of the Emirates of Abu Dhabi, and whose principal address is PO. Box 45005, Abu Dhabi , United Arab Emirates (AHC); and

(2) Khalifa University of Science and Technology, an independent legal entity established by Law number (5) for the year 2017, as successor to Khalifa University of Science, Technology and Research, The Petroleum Institute and Masdar Institute of Science and Technology, having its place of business in the UAE Emirate of Abu Dhabi, P.O. Box 127788 (Khalifa University).

AHC and Khalifa University shall be referred to herein either individually as a Party or collectively as the Parties.

WHEREAS:

(A) Khalifa University is an independent, non-profit co-educational institution with the vision to be a leading international center of higher education in technology and science. Khalifa University endeavors to serve the Emirate of Abu Dhabi, UAE society, the region and the world.

(B) AHC is a wholly owned subsidiary of Mubadala Investment Company PJSC, which is a wholly owned investment vehicle of the Government of Abu Dhabi with the mandate to generate sustainable economic benefits for Abu Dhabi through the development of, and investment in, business ventures related to wide range of sectors (including aerospace and aviation) in partnership with local, regional and international investors.

(C) AHC and Khalifa University of Science, Technology and Research entered into a definitive agreement on 28 October 2013 (2013 ARIC Agreement) concerning the creation of the "Aerospace Research and Innovation Center (ARIC or the Center) at Khalifa University of Science, Technology and Research and the execution of several joint research projects in the Center over the past five (5) years.

(D) Khalifa University of Science, Technology and Research has been replaced by Khalifa University of Science and Technology in terms of the provisions contained in said Law.

(E) AHC and Khalifa University continue to have a common interest in the advancement of technology and knowledge in the aerospace and aviation areas.

(F) AHC and Khalifa University plan to continue this collaboration for the Term on a jointly-funded research Program (as defined below) to be executed at the Center with a primary focus on two (2) main research areas:

a. Advanced Materials and Processing Technologies. This includes Additive Manufacturing, Advanced Composite Processing Techniques, Thermoplastic materials and Processes, and Multi-Functional Materials.
b. Applied Digital Technologies for Part Manufacturing and maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) operations. This includes Robotic Manufacturing and Assembly Technologies, Robotic Inspection Systems, Industrial Internet of Things (IIOT), Artificial intelligence (AI), Virtual Intelligence (VI), and Blockchain.

(G) Strata Manufacturing PJSC (Strata) and Aerospace Turbine Services & Solutions LLC (ATS&S) are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Mubadala Investment Company PJSC and will be primary beneficiaries of the Program, as detailed in Clause 7 below.

(H) This Agreement captures the commitment of the Parties to jointly-fund the Program, which comprises specific projects in the two main areas described in recital (F) (Research Projects).

(I) The Parties wish to agree, through this Agreement, how the Program shall be funded and managed over the Term, including ownership and exploitation of intellectual property rights created as a result of implementing the Program.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is agreed as follows:

1. INTERPRETATION

1.1 In this Agreement:

Affiliate shall mean in respect of a Party, any body corporate which:

i. directly or indirectly controls the Party in question;

ii. is directly or indirectly controlled by the Party in question; or

iii. is directly or indirectly controlled by a company (which shall include any body corporate) which controls the Party in question; for the purposes of this definition, a company is directly controlled by another company holding shares carrying more than fifty percent (50%) of the votes exercisable at a general meeting (or equivalent meeting) of the first mentioned company; and a particular company is indirectly controlled by a company (hereinafter referred to as the "Parent Company") if a series of companies can be specified beginning with the Parent Company and ending with a particular company, so related that each company in the series, except the Parent Company, is directly controlled by one or more of the preceding companies in the series. For the purposes of this definition, Strata Manufacturing PJSC, Aerospace Turbine Services & Solutions LLC and Mubadala Investment Company PJSC shall be deemed to be an Affiliate of AHC and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Government of Abu Dhabi shall not be considered a Parent Company or an Affiliate of AHC.

Agreement shall mean the provisions of this document and shall include the Appendices.

Background IPR shall mean any information and technology, including IPR, made available by a Party for the purposes of the Program, which was (i) in existence prior to the commencement of the Program; or (ii) generated after the commencement of the Program but outside of the Program, and to which either of the Parties has the necessary rights for the purposes of the Program.

Beneficiary Assets shall mean Strata Manufacturing PJSC (Strata) and Aerospace Turbine Services & Solutions LLC (ATS&S), wholly-owned subsidiaries of Mubadala Investment Company PJSC.

Center shall mean the "Aerospace Research and Innovation Center" at Khalifa University in the UAE identified in Recital (C).

Confidential Information shall mean information disclosed under this Agreement which relates to pricing, technical design or other commercial information relating to these issues, which concerns the business or business interests of the Parties, including the content of this Agreement, and any such information disclosed prior to the Effective Date of this Agreement.

Deliverables shall mean the agreed deliverables identified in each Research Project plan.

Foreground IPR shall mean new IPR arising or developed by the Parties (whether jointly or individually) under this Agreement as a result of the Parties implementing the Program.

In-Kind Contribution has the meaning set out in Clause 4.9.

IPR shall mean any rights in or to any patents (including petty patent), inventions, copyright, database rights, design rights, registered designs, utility models, trade-marks and service marks (whether registered or unregistered), moral rights, know-how or confidential information in intellectual property, whether registerable or not and wherever existing in the world and including all applications and rights to apply for any of the foregoing rights.

Joint IPRs has the meaning set out in Clause 7.3.

Program means the agreed program scope as more fully-described in the appendices to this Agreement and as may be revised, amended and / or updated from time by the SMB in accordance with Clause 3.

SMB shall mean the senior management board comprising two (2) representatives from each Party, which will provide overall management and guidance in the conduct of the Center and the Program.

Term shall mean the period of four (4) years.

2. EFFECTIVE DATE, PURPOSE AND SCOPE

2.1 The Parties agree that this Agreement is intended to have retrospective effect, with effect from 28 November 2018 (Effective Date).

2.2 The Parties shall work jointly and individually and always in good faith with respect to each other, to achieve the Program in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

2.3 This Agreement:

(a) shall not prevent either Party from entering into similar agreements with other parties;
(b) shall not commit either Party to enter into any other agreement arising from, or in connection with, the Program, other than for a license(s) of Foreground IPR as provided for in Clause 7 of this Agreement;
(c) places no obligations on the Parties to use, implement or conform to any of the results obtained; and
(d) does not imply any commitment on the part of either Party to procure equipment, devices or services from the other Party and shall not limit either Party's freedom of procurement.

cc

3. MANAGEMENT

3.1 Each Party shall be entitled to replace any of its members of the SMB, or to appoint a deputy or proxy who may act in place of any such appointed member. The Parties' initial members of the SMB shall be:

AHC:

(1) Dr. Abdel Qader Abusafieh
Email: aabusafieh@mubadala.ae

(2) Hashem Alkaabi
Email: hmalkaabi@mubadala.ae

Khalifa University:

(1) Dr. Steve Griffiths
Email: steven.griffiths@ku.ac.ae

(2) Prof. Lakmal Seneviratne
Email: lakmal.seneviratne@ku.ac.ae

The Khalifa University Senior Vice President – Research and Development, shall be appointed as Chairman of the SMB.

3.2 The SMB shall meet no less frequently than four (4) times in any twelve (12) month period.

3.3 The purpose of the SMB meetings will be to:
(a) set the objectives and direction of the Program;
(b) agree on detailed annual budget and Key Performance Indicators (KPIs); and
(c) agree on operational plans, including project staffing.

3.4 The SMB shall review progress against these objectives and KPIs. A description of the main functions of the SMB is appended as Appendix 1 to this Agreement.

3.5 An SMB meeting shall be quorate if three (3) of the four (4) members are present. Agreement amongst the SMB will be by unanimous vote of all SMB members present at an SMB meeting.

3.6 Each Party shall ensure that its representatives on the SMB, whether past or present, keep confidential all Confidential Information disclosed to them on the terms of confidentiality that apply to that Party under this Agreement.

3.7 Khalifa University has designated two (2) Khalifa University faculty members to drive execution of research activities within the two technology areas defined in recital (F) (Focus Areas) to coordinate administrative activities associated with these Focus Areas within Khalifa University, including HR, finance, legal, security, and communications. These two individuals (the ARIC Center Co-Directors) have subject matter expertise in the Focus Areas and Khalifa University has designated the following faculty members, for an initial period of one (1) calendar year from the Effective Date:

Prof. Wesley Cantwell: ARIC Director for Advanced Materials & Processing
Email: wesley.cantwell@ku.ac.ae

Prof. Cesare Stefanini: ARIC Director for Robotics and Digital Technologies
Email: cesare.stefanini@ku.ac.ae

3.8 The ARIC Center Co-Directors shall be assessed and reviewed on an annual basis by the SMB. The ARIC Center Co-Directors may be renewed for subsequent periods of one (1) calendar year or terminated and replaced with alternate designated faculty members, in each case, by unanimous decision of the SMB.

3.9 The ARIC Center Co-Directors shall be responsible for coordinating the selection, scoping, staffing, and execution of Research Projects within their Focus Areas. The ARIC Center Co-Directors will also present the annual budget for the approval of the SMB on an annual basis, manage expenditures against the budget approved by the SMB and provide the SMB with appropriate forecasts and explanations of expenditure. The ARIC Center Co-Directors shall also report the progress of the Program to the SMB at such intervals and in such a manner as the SMB may specify.

3.10 All decisions related to budget and resource allocation for the Center (including the identity, skill, experience and remuneration of all personnel appointed or allocated to support the Center) shall be approved by the SMB. All budget and funding decisions shall be made in accordance with the funding allocation mechanics set out in Clause 4 below.

3.11 Within the Khalifa University organizational structure, the individuals employed to work in the Center shall conduct day-to-day activities of the Center under the management of the ARIC Center Co-Directors and with the supervision of the Chairman of the SMB. The ARIC Center Co-Directors will be responsible for identifying, selecting and recommending to the SMB suitably qualified and experienced people to work on the Research Projects. The SMB shall review and either ratify or reject these recommendations. Those people who are ratified by the SMB shall be hired by Khalifa University and allocated to the Center to work on the Research Projects.

3.12 AHC will assign a Project Manager (AHC PM) to coordinate Program matters and issues on a day-to-day basis in coordination with the ARIC Center Co-Directors and Khalifa University management and staff. The AHC PM will also serve as a liaison between the Center, AHC and the Beneficiary Assets to facilitate smooth, pragmatic, technical, legal, and financial transactions at both the Research Project and Center levels. The AHC PM can be one of the two (2) AHC members on the SMB.

3.13 The cost of the AHC PM will be charged at forty percent (40%) full–time equivalent to the Center's budget, up to a maximum of three hundred and fifty thousand dirhams (350,000 AED) per year.

3.14 The cost of each ARIC Center Co-Director will be charged at ten percent (10%) full–time equivalent to the Center's budget.

3.15 Both Parties acknowledge that from time to time their human resources allocated to work in the Program (whether hired by an AHC Affiliate and/or Khalifa University) may be required to pass certain appropriate security clearance(s) by the relevant UAE or other authorities. Each of the Parties shall use reasonable efforts to achieve such clearance. Any associated third party costs borne by the Parties, for obtaining such required security clearances will be paid from the Center Funds (as defined in Clause 4.4).

Gc On cm

3.16 The Parties recognize that the structured participation of Khalifa University research personnel allocated to each Research Project (for example the ARIC lab manager, research assistants, laboratory technicians, post-doctoral researchers and ARIC sponsored students) or AHC Affiliate's engineers and technicians will be necessary to execute each Research Project. The Parties agree to identify the involvement and function of each individual's participation to the Program and their cost shall be treated as part of the operating cost of the Center, and not as in-kind contribution by either Party. Such costs of participating individuals shall be included in the annual budgeting cycle to be approved by the SMB.

4. FINANCES

4.1 Each Party shall bear its own costs associated with the preparation and execution of this Agreement.

4.2 The Parties agree that the Center will be funded on an equal basis from AHC and Khalifa University in accordance with Clause 4.3 and the projected funding contributions to be made by the Parties from the Effective Date are set-out in Clause 4.4.

4.3 The Parties acknowledge that a total of estimated unused fund of the amount of 7.0 million AED will be carried over from the funds committed pursuant to the 2013 ARIC Agreement, to be used for funding the Program, in addition to the new contributions defined in Clause 4.4. This includes a commitment of 1.5M AED from the Center Funds for a 3D printer in 2018, which has been carried over to 2019.

4.4 AHC shall make available a total of three million dirhams only (3,000,000 AED) in cash funding for the Center (AHC Funds) and Khalifa University shall make available a total of three million dirhams only (3,000,000 AED) in funding for the Center including 80% in cash and 20% in-kind (Khalifa University Funds) during the Term (collectively, Center Funds). The Funding allocation from AHC and Khalifa University for the Center shall be according to the following schedule:

Year	2019	2020	2021	2022
Funds carried over from 2013 ARIC Agreement (AED)	7,000,000
AHC cash contribution, inclusive of VAT (AED)	0	1,000,000	1,000,000	1,000,000
Khalifa University cash contribution (AED)	0	800,000	800,000	800,000
Value of Khalifa University in-kind contributions (AED)	0	200,000	200,000	200,000
Total cash and in-kind contributions (AED)	7,000,000	2,000,000	2,000,000	2,000,000

4.5 The Parties acknowledge that, since the Center is not a separate legal entity, any funds paid by the Parties shall transferred to a separate Khalifa University account, created by Khalifa University for the Center, to be utilized by the SMB pursuant to this Agreement.

4.6 The Center Funds may only be drawn down if approved by unanimous decision of the SMB. The two (2) ARIC Center Co-Directors, in coordination with AHC PM, shall be responsible for recommending to the SMB that funds should be drawn from the Center Funds, to support the execution of the Program.

4.7 If the SMB unanimously approves the draw-down of Center Funds, the SMB shall minute thefollowing:

(a) the amount to be drawn down (Drawn Amount); and

(b) a description of the purpose for which the Drawn Amount is to be used.

4.8 The Parties agree that any monies contributed to the Program by the Parties that remain unused at the end of any year shall be automatically rolled over to the following year and added to the newly contributed funds.

4.9 The Parties agree that any monies contributed to the Program that remain unused at the end of the Term shall be returned to AHC and Khalifa University, based on the ratio of the Parties' total contribution to the Program, unless it is agreed by both Parties to extend this Agreement.

4.10 Details of the Center Funds (including their allocation and spend) shall be made available to the SMB at all times and all dispersals of the Center Funds shall be governed according to annual budgets unanimously approved by SMB.

4.11 In accordance with the terms of Clause 4.4 Khalifa University's financial contribution to the Program will include twenty per cent (20%) in-kind (i.e. non-cash) contribution as a recognition for providing space and all required support services for the Program such as HR, marketing, finance and accounting, administration, facilities management, utilities, IT, use of lab. and office space for the AHC PM and Research Project teams, furniture, provision of ICT infrastructure and other similar services. AHC will not make any in-kind contribution but may, from time to time, provide technical services to the Center, through its Beneficiary Assets, which will be compensated from the Center's approved budget, with the approval of the SMB.

4.12 A detailed annual budget shall be prepared and submitted by the ARIC Center Co-Directors and the AHC PM to the SMB for approval no later than December 15 of each year. The SMB will review and approve the budget within one (1) month of the submittal date.

4.13 The Parties agree to discuss in good faith what other sources of funding (including government funding) might be available in the future to support the Center's activities.

4.14 Value Added Tax ("VAT"), or other similar taxes, will be invoiced by Khalifa University to AHC at the standard rate, as applicable, at the time of charging. The budget amount for the AHC Funds is inclusive of VAT and therefore VAT will be paid by AHC from the AHC Funds.

5. TERM

This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue in full force and effect for the Term. This Agreement shall be renewable for one (1) additional two (2) year period, conditional on the written agreement of each Party, prior to the expiry of the Term.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

6.1 All information, including all Confidential Information, shared under this Agreement by one Party (Provider) to the other Party (Recipient) will, unless it is made expressly clear by the Provider on or with the disclosure at the time, be available for sharing with the Recipient solely for the purpose of achieving the Program and Deliverables in accordance with this Agreement.

6.2 Without prejudice to Clause 6.1 above and in respect of all Confidential Information, whether of a technical nature or otherwise communicated by the Provider to the Recipient in connection with this Agreement, whether before or after execution of this Agreement, each of the Parties undertakes to the other that:

(a) it will not use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than the carrying out of its obligation, or making use of its right, under this Agreement, or other than in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; and

(b) it will (and will ensure that its employees and sub-contractors) treat the Confidential Information as confidential and use the same degree of care as the Recipient uses for its own confidential information of like sensitivity and not disclose it to any other persons without written consent of the Provider, provided always that such undertakings shall not extend to any Confidential Information which is:

i. in the possession of the Recipient at the date of receipt from the Provider; or
ii. is public knowledge (otherwise than by reason of any breach of confidentiality obligation to the Provider by the Recipient); or
iii. obtained by the Recipient from another person in good faith without breach of confidentiality obligation to the Provider; or
iv. independently acquired by the Recipient as a result of work carried out by a person to whom no disclosure of the relevant Confidential Information has been made; or
v. released in compliance with legal obligations to provide Confidential Information to government, regulatory authorities or judicial authorities.

(c) Nothing in this Clause 6.2 shall prevent the communication of Confidential Information to any third party insofar as is necessary for carrying out the Program. AHC shall be entitled to share Confidential Information with any wholly owned subsidiary of Mubadala Investment Company PJSC or any of its customers participating in the Research Projects, subject always to AHC being liable for the acts or omissions of such third parties, regarding the protection and / or disclosure of Confidential Information.

6.3 Regarding any permitted communication of such Confidential Information by the Recipient to any other person, the Recipient shall require such other person to first sign a non-disclosure agreement of equivalent scope to the undertaking in Clause 6.2 and the Recipient shall use all reasonable endeavors to ensure due observance and performance by such other person of the provisions of such non-disclosure agreement.

6.4 Any information relating to AHC Affiliates and their OEM customers which has been exchanged with or disclosed to Khalifa University staff participating in a Research Project, either indirectly through AHC Affiliates or directly through the OEM customers during the course of a Research Project, shall constitute Confidential Information.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS (IPR)

Title to Background IPR and Foreground IPR:

7.1 Nothing in this Agreement shall have the effect of transferring or assigning a Party's ownership rights or title in any of its Background IPR.

7.2 From time to time, each Party (Notifying Party) shall notify the other Party of any Background IPR owned by it or licensed to it that may be of use for the purpose of achieving the Program and the Deliverable. If both Parties agree that such Background IPR may be of use, the Notifying Party shall:

(a) grant, subject to any existing confidentiality obligation and the confidentiality obligations under this Agreement, a license of the relevant Background IPR owned by it; and / or

(b) use reasonable endeavors to procure a sub-license of the relevant Background IPR licensed to it by a third party, in each case to the other Party for the sole purpose of achieving the Program and the Deliverables.

Any such license of Background IPR will be on a royalty-free basis. However, in exceptional circumstances, such as where Background IPR is licensed from a third party on commercial terms, then exceptions to such Background IPR licensing rules may be agreed and if so these will be specifically between the Parties acting in good faith.

7.3 Subject to the provisions of Clause 7.8, all Foreground IPR arising from the implementation of the Program shall be owned by the Parties jointly in equal shares (Joint IPR). Subject to Clause 7.4, each Party:

a) shall be entitled to use and exploit such Joint IPR for its own business purpose; and
b) shall have the right to grant sub-licenses to any of its Affiliates, in each case without payment or permission from the other Party, but upon giving notice within thirty (30) days thereof.

7.4 If either Party wishes to have exclusive rights in any Joint IPR, then such Party shall issue the other Party with a notice in writing and the Parties shall negotiate in good faith, taking into account the current business practices and standards related to the particular technology at the time.

Ownership of IPR in developments to Joint IPR made by a single Party:

7.5 All IPR that are developed or created independently by a single Party in any exploitation of joint IPR pursuant to Clause 7.3 shall be owned by the developing or creating Party.

Disclosure of Foreground IPR

7.6 The Parties will each make all reasonable efforts to ensure that their respective Research Project personnel prepare, sign and submit regular written disclosures of Research Project IPR (IP Disclosure) to Khalifa University's "Office of Technology Management and Innovation" (ip@ku.ac.ae), prior to any public disclosure thereof. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of an IP Disclosure, the SMB will be provided with a copy of the IP Disclosure, together with a general description of any Background IPR, to the extent the Office of Technology Management and Innovation reasonably believes that any Background IPR is necessary to allow a successful exploitation of the matters set forth in the IP disclosure.

7.7 Where the Parties create Joint IPR and decide to apply for registration of such Joint IPR, the Parties shall jointly apply for registration in joint names (or, if permissible under the law of the relevant territory, nominate one of the Parties to register in joint names on behalf of both Parties) the Joint IPR in the United Arab Emirates and elsewhere, if such Joint IPR is capable of registration. The Parties shall agree on a case-by-case basis the territories other than the United Arab Emirates in which such Joint IPR shall be protected. The Parties agree that the costs of such protection shall be shared equally between the Parties. The total costs contributed by each Party with respect to such protection shall be mutually agreed between the Parties in writing prior to incurring such expenditure.

Licenses to Foreground IPR:

7.8 The Parties hereby grant to each other a fully-paid up, global, perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty-free license to their respective interests in the Joint IPR for the limited purposes of internal use, as may be required in the ordinary course of business. Such license expressly includes the business activities of all AHC Affiliates and their customer programs. Such activities shall include business where Joint IPR is, or may be, included or relied upon in any such product or process method.

7.9 Neither Party shall have the right or license to use or exploit any Joint IPR for the principle purpose of deriving any use or royalty fee from a third party without the express prior written authorization from the SMB, voting unanimously.

7.10 In the event that the SMB agrees to a Party exploiting any Joint IPR for the specific purpose of entering into a license, sub-license or transfer of Joint IPRs to derive a royalty fee or any other kind of financial revenue from a third party, the intention is that, subject to the provisions of Clause 7.10 below, each Party will share equally in the profit or financial gain that arises directly from any such transaction. If a Party incurs internal or external costs in the exploitation activities, such costs shall first be recovered by that Party before the foregoing profit share.

Reliance on Foreground IPR

7.11 Subject to Clauses 11 and 12.7 the provisions of this Clause 7 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

8. PUBLICATION PERMISSIONS

8.1 The ARIC Center Co-Directors , in coordination with the AHC PM and operating under processes and controls to be agreed by the SMB, will be responsible for the day-to-day management of publication and/or disclosure permissions.

For the avoidance of doubt no publication of information relating to the Program shall be made without the appropriate ARIC Center Co-Director's written permission and after review and approval from the AHC Program Manager.

8.2 Khalifa University will provide AHC with a copy of the proposed publication at least six (6) weeks before the initial submission date and Khalifa University will provide AHC with the final draft publication and / or disclosure at least one (1) month prior to the publication / disclosure date. No AHC proprietary or industry sensitive information shall be included in such publication and / or disclosure.

8.3 AHC shall respond in writing to Khalifa University within two (2) weeks of receiving a copy of the proposed publication and / or disclosure from Khalifa University. AHC reserves the right to require Khalifa University to delete from such publication any confidential or industry sensitive information. In the event the publication identifies any patentable invention, Khalifa University agrees to delay such publication for up to an additional three (3) months in order to allow time for the preparation and filing of a patent application.

8.4 AHC shall be acknowledged in any publication unless AHC desires otherwise and so advises Khalifa University in writing.

9. PUBLICITY

9.1 Nothing in this Agreement gives either Party permission to use the other Party's name, trademark or trade name in any publication or respect of any service or item to be supplied to the public, whether relating to the Program, a Deliverable of otherwise and any such use shall be subject to the explicit prior written consent of the other Party.

9.2 Neither of the Parties shall make any press announcement or issue any press release relating to the Agreement nor in any other way publicize this Agreement without the written consent of the other Party.

10. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

10.1 Should there be a dispute between the Parties in connection with or arising out of this Agreement or the breach, termination or validity hereof (Dispute); each Party will use its reasonable endeavours to settle the Dispute through discussion and resolution at the SMB. If any Dispute cannot be resolved by the SMB, within a period of forty-five (45) calendar days, it shall be escalated to the Chairman of AHC and the President of Khalifa University or their respective designees, who shall meet to discuss and resolve the Dispute.

10.2 If the Chairman of AHC and the President of Khalifa University, or their respective designees, are unable to resolve the Dispute the Dispute shall be finally settled in accordance with the rules promulgated by the Abu Dhabi Commercial Conciliation and Arbitration Center (Rules). Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party may seek injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction against the improper use or disclosure of Confidential Information. It is hereby agreed that :

(a) the seat of the arbitration shall be the city of Abu Dhabi;
(b) there shall be three (3) arbitrators, with each Party selecting one (1) arbitrator within fifteen (15) days after the claimant commences the arbitration, by giving written notice of the arbitration and the third (and presiding) arbitrator selected by two (2) arbitrators so selected within thirty (30) days after their appointment. If the two (2) arbitrators cannot agree on the third arbitrator within such thirty (30) day period, the third arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance with the Rules;
(c) the language of the arbitration shall be English;
(d) the award shall be in writing and shall set forth in reasonable details the facts of the Dispute and the reasons for the tribunal's decision; and

(e) the award in such arbitration shall be final and binding upon the Parties and judgment thereon may be entered in any court having jurisdiction for its enforcement.

11. WITHDRAWALS

11.1 Either Party (Withdrawing Party) may withdraw from this Agreement by giving ninety (90) days written notice to the other Party (Notice of Withdrawal). The SMB shall convene within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Notice of Withdrawal and shall agree on the Center obligation existing at the time of the Notice of Withdrawal. The Parties agree to provide funds in equal amounts to meet the obligations determined by the SMB, pursuant to a Drawdown Notice issued by the SMB in accordance with Clause 4.8. At the conclusion of such ninety (90) days period, this Agreement shall terminate.

11.2 All Background IPR licenses granted by the Withdrawing Party prior to it issuing its Notice of Withdrawal shall continue in full force and effect, but only so as to achieve the Deliverables approved by the SMB prior to the written notice being served.

11.3 The Withdrawing Party agrees:

(a) in-so-far as the Program or any new Deliverables after the service of the notice in Clause 11.1 above require licenses to the Withdrawing Party's Background IPR, to negotiate such a license in good faith and on reasonable terms, including reasonable commercial terms.

(b) that all the rights acquired by the Withdrawing Party prior to its date of withdrawal to the Background IPR and Foreground IPR of the other Party shall cease.

11.4 All items and tangible property belonging to the other Party at the date of termination of the Agreement referred to in Clause 11.1 will be promptly returned to the owning Party or destroyed, as instructed by the owning Party.

12. TERMINATION

12.1 This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the agreement of both Parties.

12.2 A Party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving notice to the other Party:

(a) in the event that such Party is affected by a Force Majeure Event (as defined in Clause 17) for longer than eight (8) weeks; or

(b) if the other Party commits a material breach of this Agreement that is capable of remedy, and either fails to remedy, or has not taken substantial steps towards remedying the breach, within thirty (30) days of a written notice to do so; or

(c) if the other Party commits a material breach of this Agreement which cannot be remedied, or which represents a breach of its confidentiality obligations under this Agreement; or

(d) if the other Party is repeatedly in breach of this Agreement; or

(e) if the other Party is the subject of a bankruptcy order, or becomes insolvent, or makes any arrangement or composition with or assignment for the benefit of their creditors, or goes into either voluntary (otherwise than for reconstruction or amalgamation), or compulsory liquidation or a receiver or administrator is appointed over their assets, or ceases or threatens to case carrying on its business (or any local equivalent).

ac ON GSH

12.3 If a Party delays in acting upon a breach of this Agreement, that delay will not be regarded as a waiver of the breach. If a Party waives a breach of this Agreement that waiver is limited to that particular breach.

12.4 The termination of this Agreement shall not affect any obligation or right of the Parties, which have accrued prior to such breach.

12.5 In the event of termination both Parties agree that they shall not be held responsible or liable for any outstanding commitments or costs incurred by other Party to this Agreement.

12.6 The provisions of Clauses 1, 6, 7, 8, 9,10 ,12, 13, 14, 15, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27 and 28 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

12.7 If a Party terminates this Agreement in accordance with Clause 12.2 (other than in respect of 12.2 (a)), that Party may terminate any rights and licenses granted to the other Party under this Agreement.
